

Rules and Regulations

A. Code of Conduct

- (1) Enrolment fee of $100 applies to all new students.
- (2) Students should keep the student card and receipts well for one's personal interests.
- (3) Students should bring their student card and receipts every time for registration before classes.
- (4) If the student card is lost, students should apply for a card at an administration fee of $40.
- (5) Students should not eat, drink or smoke in classrooms.
- (6) Students should not damage any instruments and facilities. Should there be any damages, students are responsible for the compensation according to the price.
- (7) ★ No video-taking and recording inside classrooms.
- (8) Children aged below 7 may be accompanied by ONE parent during lesson in the first month of enrolment, at a child escort fee of $30 per lesson.
- (9) Students should bring their own teaching materials and necessary items to classes. Parkland Music Limited ("The Institute") is not responsible to lend specific items to students.
- (10) The Institute reserves the right to adjust course fees without prior notice.
- (11) Parkland reserves the right to change tutor at any time.
- (12) ★ Students are not allowed to actively propose or accept the tutor suggestion to take classes with the tutor at locations other than Parkland Music. Tutor include current tutor and tutor who have resigned within two years. If there is any violation, the company reserves the right to pursue legal action.
- (13) ★ Tutors may promote our products to students and we may reward them with commission as a result.
- (14) The Institute reserves the right to use any materials, including photos and videos taken in events, exams, competitions, performances etc., for promotional purposes.
- (15) ★ For safety reasons, parents should pick up students on time. It is advised that parents arrive 5 minutes before class dismissal. The Institute is not responsible for events and accidents outside class time.
- (16) For some courses, the Institute grants certificates to students who pass examinations and with over 80% attendance.
- (17) Students and visitors should not leave personal items unattended. The Institute is not responsible for any lost and damages.
- (18) Students should notify the Institute at their earliest convenience for any updates on contact information.
- (19) Your lessons at the physical school and/or the online classroom may be recorded for quality assurance. In general, the recording will be kept for approximately 1 month.
- (20) The Institute reserves the right to revise the above code.
- (21) In any case of dispute, the Institute reserves the right of final decision.
- (22) All students should comply with the code of conduct and the Institute reserves the right of final decision.

B. Class Schedule

- (1) Students are recommended to take classes once per week in order to keep good learning progress.
- (2) If students wish to have flexible class schedule, one should make booking in advance and finish the course (with a minimum of 4 classes) within 5 weeks.
- (3) Other than Chinese New Year and special notices, students will have classes as usual during public holidays.
- (4) ★ Students should arrive on time for classes. Make-up time / sessions will not be granted to late-comers.
- (5) Students should not change schedule with tutors without notifying the Institute.
- (6) Should students not wish to continue any courses in the coming month, one should notify the Institute at least 7 days ahead of the last class of the month.
- (7) ★ Should students wish to change schedule, one should notifying the Institute at least a day ahead of the class. The Institute reserves the right to deny request for make-up class should there be a breach of code.

C. Payment

- (1) Monthly fee applies to most of the courses. Depending on the number of classes in a particular month, students should pay for 5 classes if there are 5 classes in that month.
- (2) Payment method includes bank transfer, FPS, Octopus, Alipay, Payme or credit card. We do not accept cheques, EPS or cash.
- (3) ★ Points to note concerning payment:
 - (i) Students should pay the course fee for the coming period on or before the last class of the current period.
 - (ii) In special cases where students are not able to settle the full payment for the coming period, at least half of the payment should be made for reserving the timeslot in the coming period.

According to the code above, the Institute reserves the right to terminate the course of any students who fail to settle the payment on time.

- (4) Once fee payment is made, the course is not refundable or transferrable.

D. Leave Application

- (1) Application of leaves must be made at least a day ahead of class. Make-up sessions will be arranged accordingly.
- (2) ★ If application of leave is made on the same day of class, unless it is a sick leave, request for make-up sessions will not be entertained and the paid course fee will not be refundable.
- (3) ★ Should students wish to take a sick leave, one should inform the Institute at his / her earliest convenience and present the medical certificate to the Institute, or else request for make-up sessions might not be entertained.
- (4) ★ In each period of course, students can only apply ONE leave, regardless of any reasons. Make-up sessions have to be taken within 30 days of the leave.
- (5) ★ If there are more than one leave, the leaves after the first leave will be regarded as absence. The Institute will not arrange make-up sessions for absence and the course fees will not be refundable.
- (6) Should students wish to take leaves for a long period of time due to medical reason, the Institute will make special arrangements for the remaining classes under the presentation of valid medical certificate.

E. Make-up sessions

- (1) ★ There are two ways of making up a class:
 - (i) Make-up sessions outside the regular class schedule (make-up sessions are suggested to be made within a week to maintain a good learning progress);
 - (ii) Extend class hours in other classes within the same period.
- (2) Make-up sessions are only valid for 1 month. Students should apply for make-up sessions within a month upon leave application.
- (3) If students have not reached the Institute for a make-up session within a month of the leave, the skipped class will be regarded as absence. Make-up sessions for that class cannot be arranged and the paid fee will not be refundable.
- (4) ★ Students cannot change the schedule of the make-up class or else it will be considered as absence. The Institute will not arrange other make-up sessions and the paid fee will not be refundable.
- (5) Make-up classes are not regarded as classes in the coming period.
- (6) The Institute reserves the right to arrange make-up sessions with another tutor or another class.
- (7) ★ The Institute will not arrange make-up sessions for absence from group classes, 3-6 person classes and the paid fee will not be refundable (except for tutor leave).
- (8) The Institute reserves the right to change schedule, classroom and tutor for the courses.
- (9) If tutors have to take leaves, the Institute will apply other tutors to make up the classes or change the schedule of the classes.

F. Arrangements under bad weathers

- (1) When black rainstorm or typhoon signal no. 8 or above is hoisted, students are recommended to remain indoor and all scheduled classes and classes in progress will be cancelled. The Institute will arrange make-up classes. If such signal is cancelled at or after 6pm, all scheduled classes will be cancelled and the Institute will arrange make-up class. If such signal is cancelled before 6pm, scheduled classes will resume after 2 hours of announcement from the Hong Kong Observatory. Should students decide not to take the class, the Institute will not arrange make-up sessions.
- (2) ★ The Institute will announce all latest arrangements of classes on the Facebook Page: <https://www.facebook.com/plmusic.hk>. Please like and follow our Facebook Page for the latest information, including special arrangements of classes.

I understand and agree to the above Rules and Regulations and sign to confirm.

Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

SA_AF_101214031_4